

Elmont
Memorial Library

Saturday
February 25, 2012
At 2pm

Black History & Baseball

With Philip Ross

Join Philp Ross and explore the history of the Negro Leagues beginning in the late 1800's segregation in baseball and how black teams and leagues developed.

Mr. Ross' research includes dozens of interviews with former players, allowing him to share interesting anecdotes about this fascinating period of baseball history.

Elmont Memorial Library
700 Hempstead Turnpike ■ Elmont, NY 11003
516.354.5280
www.elmontlibrary.org