JANUARY – FEBRUARY, 2011

UPDATE

The Wrestlemania Reading Challenge entries were due on October 25th. The library staff chose the three Local Winners from all entries received. The Local Winners are:

- Sailesh Srinivas – Grades 5-6
- Noor Gul – Grades 7-8
- Victor Ocasio – Grades 9-12

These three winning entries were forwarded to the Young Adult Library Services Association in Chicago, Illinois. The WWE will announce the Grand Prize Winners from across the United States and Canada in mid- January. We will have to wait and see if any of our Local Winners are fortunate enough to be chosen for the trip to Wrestlemania XXVII in Atlanta, Georgia on Sunday, April 3, 2011.

ZODIAC LAMP

Join Mrs. Doris Benter to create a colorful sconce-style lamp design, based on the twelve astrological signs, for your very own lamp on Tuesday, January 11th at 7:15 P.M. You will use permanent markers over provided zodiac designs, or you can choose to design your own zodiac image. The lamps are pre-wired, ready to hang, and include a light bulb. The class is free and we have space for 20 Teens. Register starting on Monday, January 3rd.

DECORATE A HOT CHOCOLATE MUG

Decorate a white ceramic mug using ceramic markers and stencils with Mrs. Athena Menoudakos on Thursday, February 3rd at 7:00 P.M. Add a hot chocolate packet and a bow for a beautiful gift for someone special, or just keep it for yourself! The materials fee is $5.00 and we have room for 15 Teens. Registration begins on Monday, January 3rd.

VALENTINE ORIGAMI

Valentine's Day is on its way, and origami is the perfect craft to celebrate this season of love! Mrs. Mary Ann Schleblein-Dawson will show us how to fold a variety of hearts, including a pop-up, a great box for gift-giving or just storing stuff, and a fun wrapper for some delicious chocolate kisses!

Registration begins on Monday, January 3rd for the class on Tuesday, February 8th at 7:15 P.M. The class is free and has room for 25 Teens.

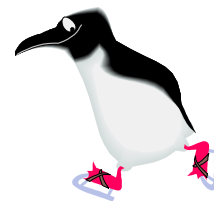

ZUMBA TEEN

Zumba is the fast-paced Latin-inspired dance class everyone wants to experience. Classic Latin dance moves like the Cha-Cha, Salsa, and Samba are combined with pulse-pounding rhythms for a workout that feels like a party. Mrs. Diane Phillips will set the moves to your favorite music in this 45 minute class on Wednesday, February 9th at 7:00 P.M. The class is free and will accommodate 15 Teens. Register starting on Monday January 3rd.

CHOCOLATE LOVERS 101

Learn the basics of melting chocolate, chocolate dipping techniques, and ideas for creating an elegant platter with Mrs. MaryAnne Impostato of Kids Edible Creations. We have two classes: Tuesday March 1st at 7:15 P.M. OR Wednesday March 2nd at 7:15 P.M. The classes are free, and we have space for 20 Teens in each session. Both sessions will be identical; choose one class or the other. You will go home with a dozen scrumptious treats! Registration starts on Monday, January 3rd.

SLIDE INTO A GOOD BOOK TEEN WINTER READING CLUB

Register for the "Slide Into a Good Book Teen Winter Reading Club" starting on Monday January 3rd at the Teen Desk and receive your Starter Kit. For each five books you read to a limit of fifteen books, you'll receive a prize and a ticket for our Closing Raffle in March. Complete an Official Book Report Form for each five books you read and return it to the Teen Desk to claim your prize. The Reading Club will end on Saturday, March 19th. Winners of the Closing Raffle will be notified by phone on Tuesday, March 22nd.
