Gathering Time's 1960s Folk Rock Festival!

Saturday, July 17th at 2:00 p.m.

Remember when music was so intertwined with changes in American culture and society that it defined a generation? Gathering Time (Stuart Markus-- bass/guitar, Glen Roethel-- bass/guitar and Hillary Foxsong --percussion) take you back to the days when popular music took up the mantle of civil rights, public protest, and social reform. The music was important and influential, but mostly memorable! Featuring songs by The Byrds; Bob Dylan; Simon & Garfunkel; Pete Seeger; Joni Mitchell, Crosby, Stills & Nash; The Mamas & The Papas; Peter, Paul and Mary; and more!

Singer - Songwriter Event

Saturday, August 7th at 2:00 p.m.

Join us for a dynamic day featuring two fabulous female singer-songwriters on their 12-string guitars! First, we have Robin Eve, noted soulful singer-songwriter from Long Island. Her melodic storytelling will entice you. Her soothing, rich voice will mesmerize you.

Then, we have Lisa Itts, discovered at the age of eleven by Peter Yarrow of Peter, Paul and Mary. Lisa's songs have been twice chosen in the top 5 of VH1's International Song of the Year Contest. Her music offers memorable melodies and moving lyrics, vague enough to self-interpret, yet empowering enough to relate to and inspire.

This program is made possible, in part, with public funds from the NYS Council on the Arts Decentralization Program administered by the Huntington Arts Council.

The Humor of Molly Goldberg (AKA Gertrude Berg)

Monday, July 19 at 2:00 p.m.

Join Marjorie Gottlieb Wolfe as she speaks about the humor of Molly Goldberg, the beloved character created by television pioneer Gertrude Berg. Long before Lucille Ball, "Molly" fluttered about and hung out her kitchen window dispensing motherly advice laced with malapropisms, and lots of "schmaltz." Her signature, "Yoo-Hoo, Mrs. Bloom," became a national catch phrase. Marjorie Gottlieb Wolfe is a retired business educator, freelance writer and author.
