BOOK DISCUSSION - THE STORY OF A MARRIAGE (Andrew Sean Greer)

Monday, November 16, at 1PM

Led by Linda Judenberg, noted book reviewer

In the summer of 1953, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were executed, a cease-fire agreement was reached in Korea, and the first stirrings of desegregation were taking place in public schools in the South. In The Story of a Marriage, Andrew Greer offers a microcosm of these changing times through the life and marriage of Pearl Cook.

This slim gem of a book is thought-provoking, complex, and exquisitely written. Its brevity belies its emotional and psychological depth.
