

Early Childhood Programs

at the

Rockville Centre
Public Library

Siblings up to age 5 are welcome to attend all programs.

1-2-3 Play With Me (1-3yrs.)

Thursdays at 9:30am, Jan. 19 - Feb. 16

Play together and learn through play!

You and your child can enjoy our great assortment of toys, followed by circle time with a librarian.

Different early childhood experts will be available at each session to discuss your concerns regarding your child's development, nutrition, speech and language, and movement.

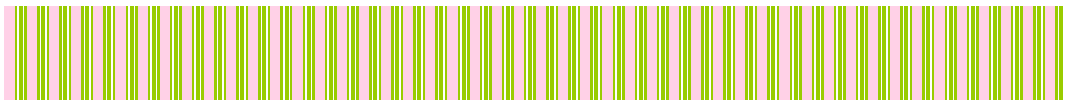

Mother Goose (15-36mo.)

Thursdays at 11am, Jan. 16 - Feb. 16

For children who have "graduated" from 1-2-3 Play With Me.

A special space for you and your child to have fun playing together, listening to stories, singing songs, and joining in circle time.

Rockville Centre Public Library cardholders may register for 1-2-3 and Mother Goose beginning Jan. 4; all others on Jan. 11 if space allows.

Rhyme Time (4-14mo.)

Friday, Jan. 6, Feb. 10, Mar. 23 at 10am

It's never too early to start enjoying the library together.

Bond with your baby, and join us for playtime, songs, fingerplays, puppets, and more, followed by circle time at the conclusion!

Sign-up begins a week before each program date.

Play Date at the Library (15mo.-3yrs.)

Tuesday, Mar. 20 & 27, 10:30 - 11:30am

Need something to do with your little one? Play Date at the Library is for you! The program features free play in an unstructured environment. Meet up with old friends, and make new ones!

Story Time In A Bag

Ask about our early childhood backpacks, featuring themed books, music, and toys. Each backpack circulates like a book!
